Personal Customers (Consumers)

A consumer is any natural person who is acting for purposes which are outside his or her trade or profession. If you are dealing with us in a Personal capacity (as an individual) you have a duty to make Fair Presentation of the Risk as detailed herein.

Your duty to make a fair presentation of the risk

You have a duty to make a fair presentation of the risk to be insured to the insurer. This requires the disclosure of any information which would influence the judgement of a prudent insurer in deciding whether to accept your insurance, impose special terms, or charge an increased premium.

You are responsible for answering any questions in relation to any proposal forms, or any other document relating to the contract of insurance, fully and accurately. All representations must be substantially correct if relating to matters of fact or made in good faith if they are matters of expectation or belief. Please do consider the questions regarding “any other information” very carefully in the light of the duty of fair presentation. The provision and documentation of this information is your responsibility.

Your responsibilities also apply to your responses in relation to any assumptions you may agree to in the process of applying for insurance cover.

Please be aware that a failure to make a fair presentation of your risk may affect the payment of your claims, cause additional charges to be made by the insurer, or even invalidate the policy.

Information must be disclosed in a way which is reasonably clear and accessible to a prudent insurer.

This duty arises not only at inception of the policy but also at renewal or in the event of any material change in your risk during the period of insurance.

It is important that you read all insurance documents issued to you and ensure that you are aware of the cover, limits and other terms that apply. You must check all details on your Statement of Facts and pay particular attention to any declaration you may be asked to sign.

You must check all documentation issued to you to ensure the details are correct and the insurance cover provided meets your requirements.

You must comply with the terms and conditions of the insurance policy you purchase including any matters where the insurer makes cover subject to your compliance with conditions or with express or implied warranties.

Failure to comply may entitle the insurer to cancel your insurance contract and/or risks a claim you make not being paid in part or in full.

You must inform us immediately of any changes in circumstances which may affect the services provided by us or the cover provided by your policy.

If you are unsure about any matter, please contact us on 01934 643400 or personallines@brunel-insurance.co.uk for help.

Terms of Business – Personal Customers

Please also note, unless your policy confirms otherwise, the rights under your policy may only be pursued in an English court.

Advised or Non-Advised Sale

An advised sale is where we give advice on the merits of buying a specific general insurance contract, explain how this meets a client's demands and needs and recommend its purchase. This will be specific individual advice to the customer and is not generic.

A non-advised sale is where we only provide information to enable a client to make a choice about how they wish to proceed. No recommendation is made. However, we will provide the client with sufficient information on the product to enable them to make an informed decision as to whether this meets their own demands and needs.

We will confirm on our quotations which level of advice we are providing.

Quotations

Brunel hereby responds to your request for quotations for insurances, suitable to meet your demands and needs, as detailed within your submission and our communications. Brunel acts as agent for you in the sourcing of a suitable policy, placing the insurance and in the event of a claim, but in limited circumstances we will act as agent of an Insurer. Please ask us if you wish to be advised of these limited circumstances.

We offer quotations from a selected range of Insurers chosen by Brunel on your behalf for their potential suitability to provide you with a product that meets your demands and needs as detailed within our communications, at a competitive cost. If required, a list of Insurers is available on request.

Brunel does not assume any liability for the completeness of your existing insurance programme (if any) or any insurance policies placed by you directly or by another insurance broker/intermediary.

Quotations - Advised Sale

We will make a recommendation and explain to you how this meets your demands and needs.

Quotation - Non-Advised Sale

We will not make a recommendation but will provide you with sufficient information to enable you to make your own informed decision in the arrangement of your insurance policy.

Our remuneration and other income

Brunel may receive a commission from the Insurer with whom we place your business. You are entitled at any time to request information regarding any commission which we may have received as a result of placing your insurance business.

Occasionally due to the nature and complexity of the work we undertake on your behalf, we may charge an additional Broking fee. Any fee of this nature will be notified specifically to you on our quotation.

Brunel may receive remuneration from a finance company for introducing you to a premium finance provider.

Some insurers may make additional payments to us reflecting the size and/or profitability of our account with them and/or in respect of work we undertake on their behalf.

Brunel reserves the right to receive a minimum remuneration of £50. Therefore, if commission on a single or multiple policy with Insurers is less than this, the shortfall difference may be added as a Broking fee. When this happens, any fee of this nature will be notified specifically to you within our quotation.

We will also make individual charges of £25 to cover the costs associated with mid-term adjustments, replacement or duplicate documents.

If prior to inception of a policy, you cancel after having given instructions to proceed with the policy, Brunel reserves the right to apply a cancellation administration fee of up to £50.

Credit Card & Debit Card Payments are accepted at no additional charge to you. Card payments are limited to £5,000 per policy.

Insurer security

Brunel makes no representations regarding the solvency of any Insurer and cannot guarantee the solvency of any Insurer.

Documentation

You agree to promptly check all documentation supplied to you by Brunel or the Insurers to ensure there are no mistakes or misunderstandings. You will advise your usual Brunel contact immediately of any errors or anything you believe is not in accordance with your instructions or specifications

Any reports, letters, or information we provide you with during the term of Brunel's Engagement are not to be disclosed to any third party without our prior written consent (If we provide our consent, we may stipulate terms regarding such provision or require the third party to enter into a direct relationship with us. We disclaim all responsibility and liability for any consequence whatsoever should a third party rely upon any such report, letter, or information without our first having given our written consent that such third party may do so.

Brunel operate a paperless environment, and information is therefore retained in electronic form. No originals or hardcopy of any paperwork will be retained.

Payment of the premium

Please be aware that full or partial non-payment of a premium or default on a credit agreement may result in the cancellation or lapsing of your policy. In addition, we reserve the right to make individual charges of £25 to cover the associated administration costs. We will provide you with a debit note detailing the amounts due and the terms of payment. Some Insurers include terms of settlement on certain contracts; others require that the premium be paid within certain strict guidelines. Payment is a condition of the policy and must be complied with to ensure that payment schedules are met in full. Failure to meet deadlines can lead to a policy being cancelled and render the contract void.

We have no obligation to fund any premium, taxes or fees (if applicable) on your behalf nor do we have any responsibility for any loss you may suffer as a result of cancellation of insurance cover or any other prejudicial steps taken as a result of late payment substantially attributable to you. If we decide to retain certain documents whilst awaiting payment, we shall provide details of your insurance cover and any information or documents required by law.

We shall be entitled (but not obliged) without providing notice to you to set off any amounts due to us from you, against any amounts which we may receive on your behalf (i.e. claims monies, refunded premiums and other sums).

Claims

We may assist you when you make a claim under your policy, but it remains your responsibility to have read, understood or queried all documentation upon receipt. All incidents that could possibly give rise to a claim must be notified to us or your Insurer in accordance with the terms of your policy and a claim form completed where required. Delay on your part in notifying a claim and/or completing required forms may result in your claim not being paid in part or in full.

You must not under any circumstance admit liability for a loss or agree to any course of action, other than emergency measures carried out to minimise the loss, as you will risk your claim not being paid in part or in full. All correspondence, claims, writs, summonses etc. should be forwarded immediately, either to us or to your Insurer. Such correspondence should not be responded to without prior agreement of your insurer unless you are required to provide your insurance details in order to comply with pre-action protocols. In such circumstances only the name and policy number of your insurers should be provided. No additional information should be furnished nor should any discussion regarding liability be entered into. You are also reminded of your duty to keep all losses and costs arising from an incident to a minimum and that failure to comply with policy terms and conditions may prejudice your cover.

We will remit claim payments received on your behalf, to you as soon as practicable after confirmation of receipt of cleared funds in our bank account. In the event that an Insurer becomes insolvent or delays making settlement, we do not accept liability for any unpaid amounts.

If a new claim is notified to us, we will endeavour to notify your insurers in a timely manner; however you should not assume that such notification has been received by Brunel and/or passed to insurers until we have advised you accordingly.

If a claim or correspondence is particularly time sensitive (for example if there is an impending deadline under Civil Procedure Rules) you must telephone us in order that we may provide advice and in order to ensure that your insurers are notified within required timescales.

Client and insurer money

Brunel acts as agent for some Insurers in the collection of premiums, claims money and premium refunds. All monies received by Brunel will be credited to a statutory trust account pending settlement to the Insurers. Any bank interest earned on this account is retained by Brunel.

Our liability to you

Brunel shall only be liable to you for any reasonably foreseeable losses, damages, costs or expenses arising directly from breach of contract, breach of duty or fault, negligence or otherwise, in connection with this Engagement. Brunel shall not be liable to you in any circumstances for any special, indirect or consequential loss.

The liability of Brunel whether in contract or in tort, in negligence, for breach of statutory duty or otherwise in respect of any claim or series of claims shall not exceed the lesser of £5,000,000 or the amount, if any, recoverable by Brunel Insurance Brokers Ltd by way of indemnity against the claim or claims in question under professional indemnity insurance taken out by Brunel and in force at the time that the claims or (if earlier) circumstances are reported to the Insurers in question.

In respect of any loss suffered by you, for which Brunel and any other party are (on any basis) liable, the liability of Brunel shall be limited so as to be proportionate to the relative contribution of Brunel to the overall fault giving rise to the loss in question.

The preceding three paragraphs shall not apply to any liability arising as a result of fraud or wilful default on the part of Brunel nor to any liability which cannot lawfully be excluded or limited, nor to the extent that the exclusion or restrictions of such liability would not be permitted by virtue of the FCA's regulatory requirements.

If the performance of any part of the Engagement by any party is prevented, restricted or delayed by reason of any cause beyond the reasonable control of that party (including (without limitation) fire, flood and other Act of God, industrial action including strike and lock out, riots, war, armed conflict, trade sanctions, contamination, disease, pandemic and epidemic, interruption or failure of a utility service, failure of computer or other machinery, and change in law or regulatory requirements) the party so affected shall, upon giving written notice to the other party or parties, be excused from such performance to the extent of such prevention, restriction or delay, provided that the affected party shall use commercially reasonable endeavours to avoid or remove such causes of non-performance or to find an alternative manner or means of performance and shall continue performance as soon as reasonably practicable after such causes are removed. Upon such circumstances arising, the parties shall discuss what, if any, modifications of the terms of this Engagement may be required in order to arrive at an equitable solution.

If your proposal form is submitted less than 10 working days from the required inception date of the insurance, Brunel shall have no liability whether in contract or tort, in negligence, for breach of statutory duty or otherwise for not obtaining insurance as per your proposal form. It is acknowledged that if your proposal form is submitted less than 10 working days from the required inception date, Brunel may approach a smaller number of insurers than usual and/or only a single insurer, and (if applicable) this will be advised to you.

Brunel may offer risk management services. Brunel are under no obligation to provide risk management services except as explicitly agreed with Brunel. Where risk management services are agreed Brunel may arrange for these to be provided by other firms on behalf of Brunel or supply the services. Where Brunel supplies or arranges for the provision of risk management services, Brunel shall not be construed as owing any greater duty than the use of reasonable skill and care in accordance with the normal standards of its profession.
